LOCAL LEGEND

The fellow who started the Mildmay Town Crier became known as “Snoopy.” While gathering stories, he apparently asked one resident so many questions that they told him he was “a snoopy person.” He embraced it and started calling his little community-news pieces Snoopy Notes

Mildmay-Carrick Managed Forest

Explore 327 acres of rolling hardwood forest with 3.5 km of trails for hiking, cycling, horseback riding, skiing and snowshoeing.

In 1975, Rotaryfest tickets were $2.50 for the dance — or a whopping $3.50 if you wanted the chicken BBQ too.

The band was The Midnight Express.

LOCAL LEGEND

Did you know?

Otter Creek used to actually run the town. Its water powered Mildmay's early sawmill, gristmills and other industry. Today the same creek runs through Rotary Park

Mildmay wasn't originally Mildmay.

For its first several years it was called Mernersville, after Samuel Merner, who had the town plot surveyed.
